- REGISTER now via your Unit Family Readiness Officer or DFRO. 10 participants required. Schedule is subject to change without notice.
- Transportation for MFR personnel only: POV is authorized and reimbursed from 100 to 720 miles roundtrip according to current JFTR TDY rates. Non-MFR personnel are welcome to attend and should request PTAD orders from their command.
- Lodging, meals, and materials are provided at the training site.
- MERs focus on deepening married couples' commitment, self-understanding, communication, and closeness to enrich their relationship. All couples who are legally married are welcome to attend the MER. No childcare is provided. MER materials will be presented in accordance with the traditional view of marriage.
- PRRs are designed to help Marines and Sailors reach their goals, improve their relationship skills, make good decisions, deal with stress, and live their lives with greater purpose and satisfaction.

(Note: the MER and PRR are not substitutes for professional counseling.)
